

GEORGE WASHINGTON MEMORIAL PARKWAY (DC, MD, VA)

Amber is from Detroit, Michigan and is currently a student at Central Michigan University. Where she is studying Management and Natural Resources and minoring in Sustainability and Environmental Policy. She hopes to utilize what she has learned in school to help serve her new community and people visiting from around the world. Amber has spent most of her summer's working for Girl Scouts at their summer camps as High Adventure staff and is excited for the change of pace of getting to work with The National Park Service.