

Catoctin Mountain Park (MD)

Lorne Haines has been a lifelong resident of Westminster, MD. He has an enthusiasm for working in the outdoors and working with others to have a positive impact on his community. His outdoor leadership and volunteer experiences include working as Boy Scout counselor at Camp Tuckahoe, volunteering at Catoctin Mountain Park, and Patapsco State Park. Lorne studied Mathematics at University of Maryland Baltimore County, and worked as a high school math teacher and data analyst before deciding to refocus his career in the environmental public service field. Lorne is proud to now be assisting the National Park Service in preserving

America's natural beauty and extending growth and service opportunities to the community.
