

Chaco Culture National Historical Park (NM)

Chelsea Mott hails from northeast Indiana. She temporarily attended Saint Mary-of-The-Woods College in southern Indiana before earning her Bachelor's Degree in Psychology at Philander Smith College, a Historically Black College in Little Rock, Arkansas. An internship at Little Rock Central High School National Historic Site was quickly converted to a Park Guide position where she worked in both Cultural Resources and Interpretation, reaching out to local communities and encouraging active participation in National Parks. Upon the completion of her term position, she accepted the joint Community Volunteer Ambassador position at Chaco Culture National Historical Park and Aztec Ruins National Monument where she hopes to continue to encourage and diversify participation and volunteerism in National Parks.

