

Minute Man National Historical Park (MA)

Ryan Ullrich has been an intern at Minute Man National Historical Park in Concord, MA, since June of 2016. He grew up in New Hampshire and has always loved the outdoors and history. Ryan studied architecture and architectural history at Keene State College where he received his Bachelor of Science degree and he is currently pursuing an MLA in Museum Studies from Harvard University. He previously worked at the Horatio Colony House Museum and the Cheshire County Historical Society in Keene, NH. He enjoys hiking, kayaking, skiing, and reading.