

Valles Caldera National Preserve (NM)

Starr Woods grew up in Georgia and has her BA in Anthropology from the University of Georgia. She specialized in archaeology, and has always been interested in National Parks. After graduating, she spent a year as an AmeriCorps VISTA at Tent Rocks National Monument in northern NM, specializing in environmental education. She then spent a short season backcountry trail building at Bandelier National Monument before heading to Gunnison, CO for graduate school. She is currently getting her masters in Environmental Management, Integrated Public Lands Management from Western State Colorado University and wants to use her position as CVA to foster environmental stewardship in the northern NM area.
