

SAGAMORE HILL NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE (NY)

Prior to becoming the CVA at Sagamore Hill National Historic Site, Nathaniel Leies lived with his Christmas tree farmer family in Pocono Pennsylvania, where he ran chainsaws, carried trees, made wreaths, went for walks with his Springer Spaniel, Wyeth, and hiked the Delaware Water Gap. A graduate of Susquehanna with majors in Marketing and Creative writing, he worked in New York City advertising as a copywriter over the summer of 2018 building experience in non-profit marketing and branding. Nathaniel is excited to further his communication skills in the parks service and share his love for history, beautiful places, and the outdoors.
