

FORT MONROE NATIONAL MONUMENT (VA)

Dominique “Dom” Hill was born and raised on the Northeast side of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. When Dom graduated from Mount Tabor High School, he went to Hampton, Virginia and attended Hampton University and received his B.A. in Strategic Communication with a minor in Political Science with a concentration in American Government. In his undergrad years, Dom became an excellent photographer and was given the title of school student-photographer. Dom has grown up with an affinity for music and the arts. Since the 3rd grade, Dom has played the cello into college. Currently, Dom is the A&R Representative for Valholla Entertainment located in Miami, Florida. Dom hopes to become a top influencer for the hip-hop community in the future and to be able to sign an indie artist to major record deals.
